Yanks Surge Ahead Two Miles On Italian Front

Allied Fifth Army Makes New Advance

Sixes Ahead Two Miles In One Sector Of Embattled Cassino Front

TWO ADDITIONAL HEIGHTS SEIZED

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ALGIERS, Jan. 10.—A forward surge of two miles by units of the Allied Fifth Army in Italy on one sector of the embattled Cassino front was announced today at headquarters of Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson.

The advancing troops under command of Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark seized two additional heights from which to batter the strong German defenses before Cassino.

Control of the newly-won heights gives the Allies dominating positions on both sides of the Via Cassina leading into Cassino and thence to Rome.

British troops forced their way across the Pecchia river in the area north of Rocco and established a bridgehead which they are holding against heavy German shelling.

Battle Way Forward

The Fifth battled its way forward on Cassino against bitter enemy opposition under overcast skies in cold weather which at night brings temperatures below freezing.

The advance had the continued support of Allied fighter-bombers which blasted German gun positions and fortifications. The Allied planes also cut up highways near Cervaro and wrecked locomotives by Solomon-based American bombers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Red troops of the First Ukrainian army are approaching Sarny, 35 miles inside the old Polish border, from two directions. One column from the south is less than 7 miles distant; the other, moving from the east, is about 10.

The multiple Soviet drives in the Ukraine are advancing northwest, west, southwest and south. They have at least three major objectives. One—is to entrap all Nazi divisions that are in the big bend

GEN. DOUGLASS MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA, Jan. 10.—Two of Japan's most powerful strongholds in the South Pacific—Rabaul on New Britain and Cape St. George on New Ireland—were disclosed today to have been lambasted by Solomon-based American bombers.

Great Fires Rage

Great fires raged after Vuna-Lakun and Tobera air-dromes at Rabaul were attacked, the first at midday and the latter two under cover of darkness. Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communiqué said:

Installations on Cape St. George, on New Ireland's southern tip, were burned during daylight hours by torpedoes and dive bombers that met stiff opposition from the Japanese when a large force of enemy planes rose to intercept.

During furious dogfights that ensued, ten of the Japanese aircraft were sent spinning to the ground, and two more were listed as probably destroyed. Six of the U. S. planes were lost.

Patrol Activity

Ground activity in the South Pacific island was largely limited to patrol activity, the communiqué re-

Polish Troops Now Fighting With Russians

Second Division Is Aiding In Drive Pushing Nazis Westward, Says Moscow

MOSCOW, Jan. 10.—Troops of the Second Polish Division, rigorously trained on Soviet soil and bearing the latest in Red army equipment, were disclosed today to have moved up to the front to fight alongside Russian troops rapidly pushing the Nazis westward.

The specific front to which the Poles were moved was not disclosed but when the troops trains departed one Polish officer shouted:

"I feel this train is starting my journey to Warsaw."

Red Star, official organ of the Soviet army, made the announcement of the transfer of the Polish troops to the front.

"The best Soviet equipment has been given these real Polish Patriots who are ready to give their lives for the happiness of their fatherland," said Red Star.

The newspaper clearly indicated that the Poles were going into action "for the expulsion of German occupants from Poland."

Red Star pointed out that many of the troops of the Second Division had been in occupied Poland since the Nazis took over and know first hand "the horrors through which their people have been living."

PEACE INSURANCE OF THE FUTURE

REVELATION by James Forrestal, undersecretary of the Navy, that in 1943 American shipyards turned out 65 aircraft carriers of all types is very bad news for Hitler and Tojo, particularly the latter.

However, no less important than Undersecretary Forrestal's disclosure of this production achievement, and his statement that America now has the greatest sea and air striking power in history, is his question, "What shall we do with this power when the war is over? Shall we destroy it as we did a quarter of our combatant tonnage in 1922 and go back to bed for another 20 years?"

The answer of all thoughtful Americans should be "Positively no!" For a good many years after the war strong arms will be peace insurance for America. We must keep that insurance in working order.

FAR-REACHING EXPERIMENT

Two expeditions are under way in far off Saudi Arabia, which may affect the food supply in the United States. That may appear far-fetched until details are revealed.

The expeditions are for the purpose of killing off crop-devouring locusts which begin to hatch this month and which will swarm into the grain and vegetable growing regions of the Middle East, southern Russia, and Egypt if not controlled. A thousand men, mostly from the British army, all Mohammedans, comprise the personnel of the two expeditions. They will scatter poison-soaked bran along the routes young locusts travel before they learn to use their wings.

Arabia is the breeding ground for locusts. Its hot sands hatch the young hoppers. For a month these young live on the vegetation of that relatively barren country. They will gobble bran and experiments made by Dr. Uvarov, reputed to be the world's greatest expert on locusts, have revealed that these crop killers can be slaughtered by the millions by using poisoned bran.

The Middle East supply center is backing the locust extermination campaign because crops saved from the pests will lessen the task of the United Nations in getting food to the fighting men in that section by ship and rail.

YANKEE CHOO-CHOO

Among the many different types of machines sent to England for war work, none has caused more favorable comment or aroused more interest than the American locomotive. Hundreds of these behemoths of the rails are now in service there, moving men and material in preparation for the day of invasion. They are of the latest type, capable of high speed as well as moving long string of freight cars, called goods wagons in England.

Other than conforming to the British idea of eliminating the cowcatcher, these locomotives are American from number plate to the rear of the tender. It seems the English engines have no cowcatchers because, as they explain, cows just do not get on the tracks. At first the American locomotives startled the citizens with their full-throated whistles, contrasting so sharply with the little pip-squeak of the English type.

English engine men pronounce them a thing of joy, keeping their tea warm on the boiler head as they roll at a 70-mile-an-hour clip over the countryside. Close on the heels of invasion they will be ferried across to the continent, where they will continue to aid in the battle against Hitler. When victory comes their whistles will join in the chorus announcing that happy event.

A FISHERIES BOOM

Among dietary prospects for Americans this year is the availability of a great deal more fish than in 1943. The estimated catch for 1944 is four billion dollars' worth of fish and shell fish from United States and Alaskan fisheries. If this figure is attained, it will represent a nearly normal catch and a big increase over the figures for 1942 and 1943.

When the nation entered the war, 700 large fishing vessels were requisitioned for the armed services. Most of them are still in war service. But shipbuilding has progressed to the point that more than 500 new fishing vessels of all types have been or soon will be delivered to fishermen. With the fear of enemy submarines eliminated, the crews will be able to work the fishing grounds unmolested.

Pilchard, or California sardines; menhaden, used chiefly for fish meal and fish oil, and salmon will account for one-half the total catch. A particularly large salmon catch is expected and the probability is that a 10 per cent increase in the salmon pack will be chalked up. Maine and California sardines and tuna will also be more plentiful.

There will be smaller packs of oysters, clam products, shrimp, crabs and mussels due to the heavy demand for these foods in the fresh state. But it is likely consumers will find occasionally some of their favorite red salmon for sale.

THE PACIFIC AGE

Reported agreement at Cairo that the United States is to take over the Japanese mandated islands would seem to assure a long range program of naval and air construction in the Pacific after the war.

This prospect is enhanced by the likelihood that the United States will undertake a broad scale program of construction in the Philippines. Filipino officials already have suggested that this nation build and maintain adequate naval and air bases on the dependent archipelago as a course of mutual protection for the Philippines and the United States. And there is considerable enemy destruction in Manila and elsewhere to be repaired or replaced when peace comes.

Possession and strengthening of the Japanese mandated islands will make the United States the preponderant power in the Pacific. It will assure to this nation the leading sea lanes and air routes of that great ocean. American commercial contacts with Australia and New Zealand, the East Indies and China will be stronger than ever.

There is a growing belief that the age of the Pacific is to succeed the age of the Atlantic. Trade with a weakened Europe will inevitably decline, especially if Russia emerges as a great industrial power, and trade with the countries bordering the Pacific will rise.

If that prospect is borne out, the United States will be in the position to take advantage of it.

There will be two eclipses this year, in addition to that of Hitler.

The new year will be full of riddles for the Nazis, as Goebbels says, but the Allies will supply the solutions.

The Parent Problem

By GARY C. MYERS, Ph. D.

FATHER NOT STRICT ENOUGH
America over, the average father is more strict with the child than the mother is. Occasionally one finds this relationship reversed. Apropos, a preacher's wife writes:

"We have four children: a boy 12, a girl nine, a girl six and a boy two. All these years I have had to be responsible for whatever discipline the children received. If the bickering gets too noisy Dad leaves the room."

"Once the boy was told that he could go to the movie (three miles away) if he was invited but that he could not ask anyone to take him. He had seen one movie that week. With his father in the same room he phoned a friend to see if he were going to the movies. The friend wasn't but Dad did nothing about it. I have seen his Dad mow the lawn the boy was supposed to mow simply because the boy didn't do it. Last night Dad told him twice to shut off the radio and go to bed, but Dad went to bed leaving the boy listening to the radio."

"When I try to explain to the boy why I need coal now or why he has to do an errand he shouts about my voice why he isn't going to do it or else just sits. If I put my hand on his shoulder to start him he fights me."

Father's Attempt Failed

"Dad suggests, 'Leave the boy to me, he has too much bussing.' For a while he did and had to be after him all day to get him to do a few things that could have been done in an hour if Dad would have backed me up and made him do it."

"Am I unreasonable to expect him to tidy up his room, set up my wash day equipment, bring up fuel and empty ashes from the kitchen stove, help tidy the cellar and attic once in a while and do an errand or two?"

"As I wrote this mother, she hardly can hope to change her husband much but might keep matters from growing worse if she stopped arguing with her boy, even stopped commanding him but would trust entirely to requests, showing no anger when the boy did not accede to the requests."

"By this procedure you might win the lad and his father to cooperate. It also might be well for you to make requests of the father to do some of the reasonable things you listed. The exercise should be good for the father. Then, too, this plan might motivate the father to require the boy to do some of these jobs. Surely at the present rate this preacher, not matter how many souls he saves, is on the road to ruining his own son's soul. But there is no use for you to tell the father so; you already have lectured him too much about his failure as a father."

LEMONS

Lemons and limes are very good sources of vitamin C. Sailors long ago had an awful time with scurvy. Long voyages without fresh food played havoc with them.

Someone found that lemons or limes would prevent this dread disease.

British sailors were supplied with limes. They ate them and did not get scurvy. They ate so many that the sailors got the nickname of limes.

Lemon juice may be used for lemonade. It may be used in soups or dressings.

Some people like lemon in tea. Lemons, limes, oranges, tangerines and grapefruit are called citrus fruits. They make our best source of vitamin C.

They are good for us. Children need them especially.

Introduction Cards Given Eligibles By Employment Office

Card Replaces Statement Of Availability For Worker Entitled To Job Change

Local office of the United States Employment Service will hereafter issue an introduction card instead of a statement of availability to persons entitled to change jobs under the Employment Stabilization Program, it was announced today by G. O. Anderson, manager of the New Castle office.

This change in procedure is aimed at streamlining operations in the Employment Service and simplifying the referral of qualified job applicants to employers, Mr. Anderson explained.

Statement of Availability form (USES-528) will continue to be issued by employers who release workers entitled to change jobs under the following conditions listed in the stabilization plan:

(1) When the worker has been discharged or laid off for an indefinite period or for 7 or more days.

(2) When continuance of employment would involve undue personal hardship such as serious danger to health.

(3) When employment is at a wage or under working conditions below state or federal standards or at a wage below a level approved by the national War Labor Board as warranting adjustment, and the employer has failed to make or apply for such adjustment.

Workers who do not obtain statements of availability from their employer and who apply to the United States Employment office, if entitled to job transfer under the stabilization plan, will be issued the Introduction Card form (USES-508) and the Employer's Copy of the Introduction Card (USES-508-1) which certifies that the applicant

Says Scientists Must Take More Prominent Part

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(INS)—Scientists of the present and the future must take a more prominent place in the political and industrial life of America. Gaston Dubois, senior vice president of the Monsanto Chemical Company of St. Louis, said Saturday.

The veteran chemist addressed the Society of Chemical Industry in New York where he received the Perkin medal from the American section of the group.

"As chemists should assume those civic responsibilities for which we are best suited," stated Dubois. "We chemists should take a very definite interest in the use and control of science, and this will lead to an interest in law and government."

Gen. Chennault's Bombers Sweep Over Jap Areas

French Indo-China And Burma Are Pounded In Day's Operations

CHUNGKING, Jan. 10.—(INS)—Medium bombers and fighters of Gen. Claire L. Chennault's hard-hitting 14th air force were officially revealed today to have swept over China, French Indo-China, and Burma Saturday for a "big day's" operations.

A communiqué from the Chungsing headquarters of Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell said that of the Chinese-American wing, Mitchell mediums, ranging out to sea off the southeast coast of China, sank a 1,200-ton merchantman.

Fighters battered six river gun-boats and many auxiliaries in the Yangtze and the strafed Japanese troops along the bank.

Fires were started when fighters blasted Japanese installations at Sagon, in central Burma, and Cambodong, in Indo-China. Lumberyards, warehouses, rolling stock, docks and rail facilities on the other side of Indo-China's Red river were attacked, and pilots returning to their bases reported fires visible for 30 miles.

At Loakay, also in Indo-China, railway cars were strafed by Chennault's famed "Sky Dragons".

All the U. S. aircraft returned from their operations.

New Type! Plane To Be Valuable For War Service

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(INS)—Brig.-Gen. B. W. Chidlaw, chief of the materiel division of the U. S. army air forces, predicts the speed possibilities and performance of the allies new propellerless jet propulsion airplanes at high altitude will make it valuable for combat purposes.

Chidlaw, who has flown one of the new planes, said in a radio broadcast that it is easy to operate and the pilot experiences less noise and vibration than in ordinary type ships.

"This new plane is revolutionary in that it has no propellers," he said. "I flew this plane during its preliminary tests. I found it acted as most conventional planes do. Our pilots will find no trouble in operating these planes."

The plane is reported to have a speed of between 500 and 600 miles per hour.

Apprehension On Russian Attitude

Section G Meeting Fear Moscow's Attitude May Endanger Willingness Of U. S. People To Sup- port World Plan

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(INS)—Genuine apprehension prevailed in official quarters in Washington today that Moscow's attitude toward Russia's border states may endanger the willingness of American people to support United States participation in a permanent world security system.

The implication in the recent Pravda attack on Wendell L. Willkie that Russia intends to play a lone hand in respect to its future relations with Poland, the Baltic states and Finland was still causing serious concern to the State department.

Those officials who are most eager for close cooperation with Soviet Russia were fearful that American public opinion may become disillusioned about this country's participation in an international organization to uphold post-war settlement if such settlement involves injustices against small states.

The position of the American government is that a post-war settlement involving the independence and territorial integrity of small states should be made by general Allied agreement in accord with the spirit of the Atlantic Charter rather than by unilateral action based on force.

One of Secretary of State Cordell Hull's cardinal rules of conduct for international relations is that cooperation between nations must be based "on the principles of liberty, equality, justice, morality and law."

Other rules of conduct laid down by Hull as essential to future world peace include "willingness to settle international disputes by peaceful means" and respect for "sovereign equality of all peace-loving states."

In his enunciation of American foreign policy, Hull has repeatedly warned that organized international cooperation can be successful only to the extent to which the nations of the world are prepared to practice these principles.

It is in the light of this policy that American officials now view with genuine concern the apparent determination of Russia to pursue a lone hand in the settlement of its relations with the border states.

Official Washington sincerely hopes that Soviet Marshal Stalin will change his mind before the American people again reject the idea of this country's participation in an international organization to maintain world peace.

Man Admits He
Stabbed Woman

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 10.—(INS)—Herbert Francis Schomer, 39-year-old Connellsville plumber's assistant, today admitted after long questioning, the Fayette county district attorney's office disclosed, that he killed Mrs. Betty Brown Dominic, 22, in a quarrel last week.

"That's the God's truth right from heaven," County Detective William J. Long quoted Schomer as concluding in explaining he stabbed the pretty waitress, with whom he lived, three times in a quarrel.

It began in an argument over another woman, Schomer told the detective and state police. She stabbed him in the chest first, Schomer maintained, and then he took the knife from her and stabbed her three times, stumbling upon a bed in the struggle. When he regained his senses, he said, he found the woman dying at his feet. Schomer told police he placed the blood-stained knife in her hands.

A coroner's inquest will be held Thursday. Schomer faces a charge of murder.

Declare Germans Still Listen To British Radio

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 10.—(INS)—Despite the Nazi edict telling Germans that they must never, never listen to the British radio, many Berlin residents today still do it.

The Berlin correspondent of the newspaper Svenska Dagbladet, in Stockholm on leave, told how one Swedish resident of the bomb-battered German capital has figured out a way of telling how many Germans do some illicit listening to BBC.

Attending parties, he waits for a conversational lull, then gives three short raps and a long one in the accepted Morse Code style—the V signal used by the British radio. The effect, he says, is surprising.

The Svenska Dagbladet correspondent wrote that it was impossible to print what an old postman said during an Allied bombing raid. The letter carrier entered the subway station at Potsdamer station fuming, after having been refused admittance to the modern shelter of the air ministry. He was told that shelter was only for high officials.

YANK INGENUITY SCORES IN ITALY

ALGIERS, Jan. 10.—(INS)—Yank ingenuity scored today on the Italian battlefield.

Headquarters announced that an American soldier who had been captured by troops of the German 44th Infantry Division near the center of the Fifth Army front talked so glibly that he persuaded 17 Germans to return to the Allied lines where they were made prisoners of war.

Exiled President Of Lithuania Is Dead In Cleveland

Suffocated To Death When Flames Sweep Residence Of His Son

CLEVELAND, O. Jan. 10—(INS)—Funeral arrangements were being completed today for Antanas Smetona, 69, exiled president of Lithuania, who suffocated yesterday when flames swept the Cleveland residence of his son.

Smetona, who had resided with his son in Cleveland since 1942, was found on the third floor of the building with a fur coat over his head. His wife, Sofie, 58, escaped injury. Firemen said the blaze apparently started from an overheated furnace.

Others in the house who fled the flames included Smetona's son, Julius, 30, his daughter-in-law, Burita, 31; two grandchildren, Anthony, 4, and Joseph, 3, and a Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lindquist, who occupied an apartment in the building.

Smetona, who began his fourth term in December, 1938, was Lithuania's first and only president. He tried unsuccessfully to steer his country through the perilous days preceding the present war, but was forced to flee in June, 1940, when the Russians occupied the tiny Baltic republic.

PRODUCTION RESUMED

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 10—(INS)—Production was resumed today at the Youngwood and Scottsdale plants of the Robertshaw company after the 2,400 CIO steelworkers had voted to end their walkout.

The strike ended following appeals by United States ordinance officials, federal and state conciliators.

The dispute will be referred to regular union machinery for settling the grievances, company officials were informed. The men had struck demanding the ouster of a supervisory official.

Students Turn In 15,725 Cans For Week's Collection Of Cans

Students of the county schools reported a total of 15,725 cans for collection in the week past according to Hugh Chapin, county collection chairman. Two of the schools, New Wilmington and Sunny

Avenue, reported 100 percent collection with New Wilmington turning in 2,537 and Sunny Avenue 1,

596. John Sharp and John Wilson were high for New Wilmington with 1,700 cans each. The individual high for the county was Ralph Cumming of Bessemer with 1,000 cans.

He is 9 years of age and in grade four.

Following is the totals of the various county schools reporting would still receive the $1,200 personal exemption but no $350 credit for a dependent.

Unlike the personal exemption,

the credit for dependents may not be divided between two persons filing separate returns, but must be taken by the one contributing the chief support. However, where two or more persons support the same dependent and each furnishes the chief support to a different dependent, each may take the credit for the dependent furnished chief support. If a husband and wife contribute exactly equally to the support of a dependent, as may be the case in community property state, either may take the credit.

The "credit for dependents" is figured differently on the two forms

both for regular income tax and for victory tax.

On short Form 1040A the credit for dependents is stated at $350.

Actually, the credit is $350 but the extra $35 is a device to save the taxpayer using this form the inconvenience of figuring such things as

"earned income credit" and makes possible the use of the simplified tax table on that form. Also on this form the dependent credit for victory tax, which actually is 2 per cent of the gross amount of the victory tax is combined with another percentage credit for single or married persons and the total is deducted from the 5 per cent victory tax rate, so that the taxpayer selecting a net victory tax rate in the table (near the bottom of the back page) can figure his net victory tax in one arithmetical step. On this form you should count as dependents only those that you had on July 1, 1943, without regard to the situation in other parts of the year.

On long Form 1040, the credit for dependents for the regular tax is $350 and the taxpayer must show in Schedule I on page 3 for how many months of 1943 the dependents were supported. If the dependents were not supported for a full year, only a proportionate amount of the $350 may be claimed.

For instance, for a child born on July 1 there can be allowed on this form only $175. Also for a child which became 18 years of age on July 1, there can be allowed $175.

In both cases, the children were eligible for credit for 6 of the 12 months and the credit is figured at 6-1/2 of the $350. For purposes of this prorating, only whole months are counted. More than half of a month is figured as a whole month;

half a month or less should be disregarded.

On long Form 1040, the credit for dependents for victory tax is figured at 2 per cent of the amount of the victory tax as shown in Schedule K on page 4. In the case of dependents claimed for less than a full year, the credit against victory tax must be prorated in a similar manner as in the case of the regular income tax.

A credit for dependent is not allowable with respect to a minor child serving in the armed forces of the United States, since he is not supported by any taxpayer during the period of such service.

Part of her job is a run of Long Distance traffic and people are waiting for you're calling.

So, when you are making a call

State Relief Rolls Being Cut Down

HARRISBURG, Jan. 10—(INS)—The department of public assistance halted today a preliminary report of 1943 relief activities disclosing that approximately 71,500 persons were pruned from the rolls after they found jobs in Pennsylvania's labor-starved industries.

As of January 1, the department stated, the total assistance load numbered 151,740 cases representing 233,824 persons and was 71,500 persons less than January 1, 1943. "This drop in the case load is remarkable," officials said, "in view of the fact that at the beginning of the year practically every able-bodied person had already left the rolls, leaving on the aged, blind, mothers with their dependent children, and those handicapped by various physical disabilities which tended to lessen

Shenango Valley Beagle Club Has Banquet Event

Program Presented At Sylvan Heights Club House Saturday Night

Organized less than a year ago
the Shenango Valley Beagle club held its first annual banquet Saturday night January 8 in the Sylvan Heights club house with about 50 in attendance. Harry Brinton, retiring vice president was the general chairman of the evening.

Mr. Brinton called upon John Greer for the invocation before the service of the chicken dinner.
The dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haycock and was of the usual high quality.

Following the dinner Mr. Brinton spoke briefly upon the success of the club in its first year of life. He then introduced the toastmaster, Bart Richards.

History Of Club

John Greer, one of the founders of the club who leaves soon for service in the Navy gave the history of the club and the background up to it. He mentioned the club's field trial area in Neshannock township, 165 acres in size and touched upon the purpose of the club, to improve the quality of beagles and to provide sport for the members.

Mr. Brinton then introduced the old and new officers. Those returning were Fred Kerr, president, Harry Brinton, vice president, John Greer, secretary, and treasurer.

The new officers are William Strouse, president, Harry Brinton, vice president, and Robert Morrow, secretary and treasurer. Directors are Thomas O'Brien, Henry Gritty,
Arthur McGurk and Paul Looney.

One of the members who was introduced was Harry Yeager, a beagle judge of national reputation. He acknowledged the introduction. The program was concluded with the showing of motion pictures of outdoor life by John Strouse.

The dinner was a success, unusually successful for an organization which has been in existence less than a year.

RUSSIAN FORCES DRIVING FORWARD TOWARD VINITSVA

port. It seemed obvious that the Nazis would be forced soon to abandon this only remaining battlefield of any size on the river's right bank, which would enable the two powerful Soviet armies to form a juncture.

The Dnieper's bank around Kaniyev is particularly high, and the Sov-iet's put the advantages of the terrain to advantage in the fighting that has raged around the town, which is the national shrine of the Ukraine. On the deepest part of the bank is the grave of the Ukraine's national poet, Shevchenko, whose burial place has long been reported desecrated by Nazi soldiers using the hill for artillery positions.

This reported desecration was said to have added to the fury with which the Reds have been attacking the Kaniyev area.

The new advances by Red army troops, hard on the heels of their capture of Kirovograd Saturday, still further harassed German communications, already hard hit, and brought dire menace to rail lines

remaining in the enemy's hands.

Bukov, taken by Gen. Nikolai Vatin's First Ukrainian army, lies about 12 miles north of the Smela-Vinitsva escape railway and once this line is out German forces to the northeast in the Dnieper Bend will be without means of retreat.

Similarly, Zhorishche is but 31 miles from the Odessa-Warsaw line a gateway route from southern Russia which, if severed by Vatin's hard-driving forces would leave the Nazis only the alternative of escaping into Rumania, if possible.

To the northwest, other units of the First Ukrainian army captured Polomnoye, railroad city 50 miles due west of Berdichev on the line through Shepetovka to Rovno. Polomnoye is about 40 miles from the old Polish frontier.

Discharged from the front said that a spearhead driving toward Sarny, well inside prewar Poland, was within seven miles of that railroad center while another was only ten miles away and pushing steadily westward.

Capture of Sarny would be one of the most grievous blows suffered by the Nazis, because it would cut the Kiev-Warsaw rail line, thus driving a wedge between Nazi forces of the north and the south, and perhaps forcing a precipitous retreat
all the way to the Bug river.

Gen. Ivan S. Konev's Second Ukrainian army fought its way into Kirovograd on the Smela-Zhama-nenka railroad, and captured some 40 additional communities, the Soviets announced.

The Russian high command pointed out that the Nazis are suffering heavily in manpower and material losses in the battles that accompany the Red advance.

The attempt of Field Marshal Erich Fritz Von Mannstein, the Nazis commander, to mount a major offensive against Kiev this winter brought heavy losses to the enemy in war materiel and supply lines rendered useless by the Russian advance have made it impossible to send the Germans strong replacements.

erected. It was desired to have one in the Seventh ward. Mr. Shira said that so far, no suitable place has been found in that section. It is possible the search for one there will be continued.

Regarding sled riding, Mayor
John F. Haven stated that sledding was permitted on certain streets because of an ordinance which was passed during the period he served as chief of police. He said he desired sledding inaugurated as soon as possible.

Supervision was discussed. It was admitted there were not sufficient available police to supervise all the streets where sledding would be allowed. Park Director J. D. Alexander said he would arrange for some supervision but Safety Director D. O. Davies said he felt sure the OCD would be glad to take over supervision.

The police and persons affiliated with the move will make daily inspections of the streets where sledding will be permitted and report to the public when sledding is good. Men will be on guard. It is likely that red lights will be used, likewise ropes, to keep traffic off
the designated streets.

Streets Designated

Streets where sledding will be permitted and supervised after snow falls sufficiently deep and when the body gives the "You may sledding now" order follows:

Lathrop street, Washington street to William street; Stanton avenue, Rose avenue to Hazel street; Temple avenue, Cascade street to Washington street; Delaware avenue, Moody avenue to Park avenue; Abell street,
Norwood avenue to Sheridan avenue;
Boyles avenue, Wilmington to Snakes Rest; Locust street, Moody avenue to Boyles avenue to city line; West North street,
Robinson street to Lower Street;
Leisure avenue, Mercer street to Wilmington avenue, and Court street, city line to Ray street.

The meeting adjourned after Mayor Haven expressed his appreciation of those attending the meeting and showing their keen desire to aid skating and sledding here.

Bulla, Dodson Lead Los Angeles Golf Open With 210

Dark Horses Surprise Record Breaking Gallery

Pair Tops Field Of 60 As $12,500 Classic Reaches Finals

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—(INS)—Johnny Bulla, Chicago commercial air pilot, and another dark horse, Kansas City's Leonard Dodson, led the field of 60 today into the final 18-hole round of golf on the Wilshire Country Club course.

Bulla, who won the $12,500 Los Angeles Open three years ago, stunned a record breaking gallery as he turned in his third straight 70 yesterday for an aggregate of 210 to take top honors along with Dodson for the 1944 Open.

Play Impenetrable

Bulla played flawlessly as he recorded his 70 to run his 54-hole total to the top along with Dodson, a cogtender many times in various tournaments but never there at the finish.

Craig Wood, golf's duration champion, turned in the most remarkable performance of the day, firing a 67 for an aggregate 211. Byron Nelson, the pre-tourney favorite, evened the course at 71 to run along side of Wood.

Wood, playing superlative golf, ranks as one of the most dangerous swingers for the $4,375 war bond first prize; the same goes for experienced Nelson.

Dodson easily could have been leading the field with a fair shake from Lady Luck. Two of his putts stuck on the lip of the cup, resting the underdog two important strokes.

Top Notchers Hit Snag

Most of the other top notchers ran into all kinds of trouble. Byrd, who slipped to 212 after pacing the field as yesterday's round started, had his L.A. classic, most of whom followed Byrd and Dodson.

The Kansas City pro was no less erratic with his one-under-par for 71-69-70-210 to equal Bulla's score.

The two dark horses raced out in front with the momentary collapse of form suffered by the Detroit pro Sammy Byrd, who up until yesterday had held first place. Sammy garnered a 75 for an aggregate 66-71-75-212, two strokes behind the leaders.

Ties with Byrd at 212 were Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Philadelphia who posted a 69-72-71-212 and Olin Dutra, Wilshire pro, who fell off a bit yesterday with a 69-70-73-212.

Montreal, Detroit Win In Hockey

The New York Rangers' National league losing streak was extended to five in a row today after a valiant fight in which they were nosed out, 6-5, by the Montreal Canadiens before 15,563 fans in Madison Square Garden.

The Red Wings defeated Chicago, 4-2, before 11,193 fans in Detroit who saw a 2-2 tie broken in the final period by Harold Jackson's 60-foot goal shot. Less than a minute later Sydney Howe clinched the game in the Wings' favor.

Lou Little In Favor Of Pass Anywhere

Columbia Coach Also Would Prohibit Players From Running Fumbled Ball

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Coach Lou Little of Columbia university speaking at a dinner in his honor, urged that college football rules be changed to permit use of the forward pass anywhere behind the line of scrimmage instead of five yards or more as at present.

The games are scheduled to be played in Indianapolis on April 11 and 12. An additional meeting may be arranged for another date in a different Indiana city.

The Buccaneers now have 11 exhibition games booked against major league opposition, six with the Indians and five with the Detroit Tigers.

Food Problem Is Big Topic Among Congress Members

Senator Plans To Present Resolution For 'Meat Rationing Holiday'

Trend Of Trading Is Lower; Losses In Most Cases Are Fractional

NEW YORK. (INS)—Industrial stocks gave ground today in an otherwise dull session. Losses in most cases were fractional although in the high priced chemicals ran to as much as 2 points.

Most groups were lower, including the communications, metals, electric equipments, rail equipments, steels and tobaccos. Utilities were mixed to slightly better while rats were unchanged.

Biggest loss was 2 points in Allied Chemical. Dow lost 1 and DuPont and Union Carbide fractions.

Oil shares were fairly steady and Texas Corp. showed a slight gain. In the rails, Chesapeake & Ohio was fractionally higher. New York Central was among the most active but got nowhere in the early trading. Delaware & Hudson hit a new high at the start.

In the sugars, South Porto Rico and West Indies were active with the former at its 1943-44 high. Cotton was better. Grains rose as much as a cent a bushel. Bonds were higher.
